Overview

Chinese Home Country	All land zones Originally with a Chinese warlord, KMT, CCP, Manchukuo or Mongolian roundel as well as Formosa and Hong Kong.
Capital	Does not have a Capital while a Minor Power. May collect income without a Capital while a Minor Power.
Starting Income	6 IPP.
Strategic Navel Moves	1 (once evolved to Major Power)
Chinese Civil War	At war with CCP in an ongoing civil war (refer to 14.3).
Alignments	May Align Chinese warlords (refer to 4.9).
Pact available	Chinese Truce (refer to 6.6).
Evolution to a Major Power	Until evolved, KMT does not Align with anyone. KMT can only move/attack within Chinese Home Country and in sea zones adjacent to Chinese Home Country. Evolution to Major Power: KMT evolves to a Major Power once its land zone IPP values add up to 13+ IPP. After evolving, it selects a Capital and may place 1 factory there at no cost: • 1 Major Factory if chosen capital is a city land zone. • 1 Medium Factory if chosen capital is any other land zone. Subsequently, it can build facilities, send Lend-lease, develop technology and move/attack outside Chinese Home Country. As a Major Power, KMT no longer has “Decentralized Production” or “Low Morale” special abilities. Note that if KMT evolves to a Major Power in its Player Turn, it can still use its “Decentralized Production” special ability in that turn.
Surrender	Surrenders if KMT Possesses no land zones.

Special Abilities

KMT	Special Ability
Decentralized Production	KMT may place infantry-class units and Cavalry in any Chinese Home Country land zone it has possessed since the beginning of the Player Turn. No factory is required.
Burma and Ledo Roads	Allows tracing a Supply Path through the otherwise impassable Himalayan Mountains for Lend-lease delivery. It cannot be strategically bombed. It requires the following four conditions in order to be open: 1. It must be July, 1938 or later. 2. Japan and KMT are at war. 3. KMT Possesses Yunnan. 4. The Allies Possess Burma. While the Burma Road is open, KMT may purchase Artillery and Anti-aircraft Artillery in Yunnan. The Ledo Road extends the Burma Road to Bengal. Same conditions and rules apply, but the Allies must also Possess Bengal.
Low Morale	Upon attacking, each KMT regular Infantry and Cavalry that rolls a 10 or more retreats from the attack to the zone it attacked from. These units must roll dice, even if there are no defending units in the land zone they are attacking. Units that are forced to retreat may not be taken as casualties. If KMT has evolved to a Major Power, it no longer suffers this attack weakness.
